Book 1: The Distant Hours

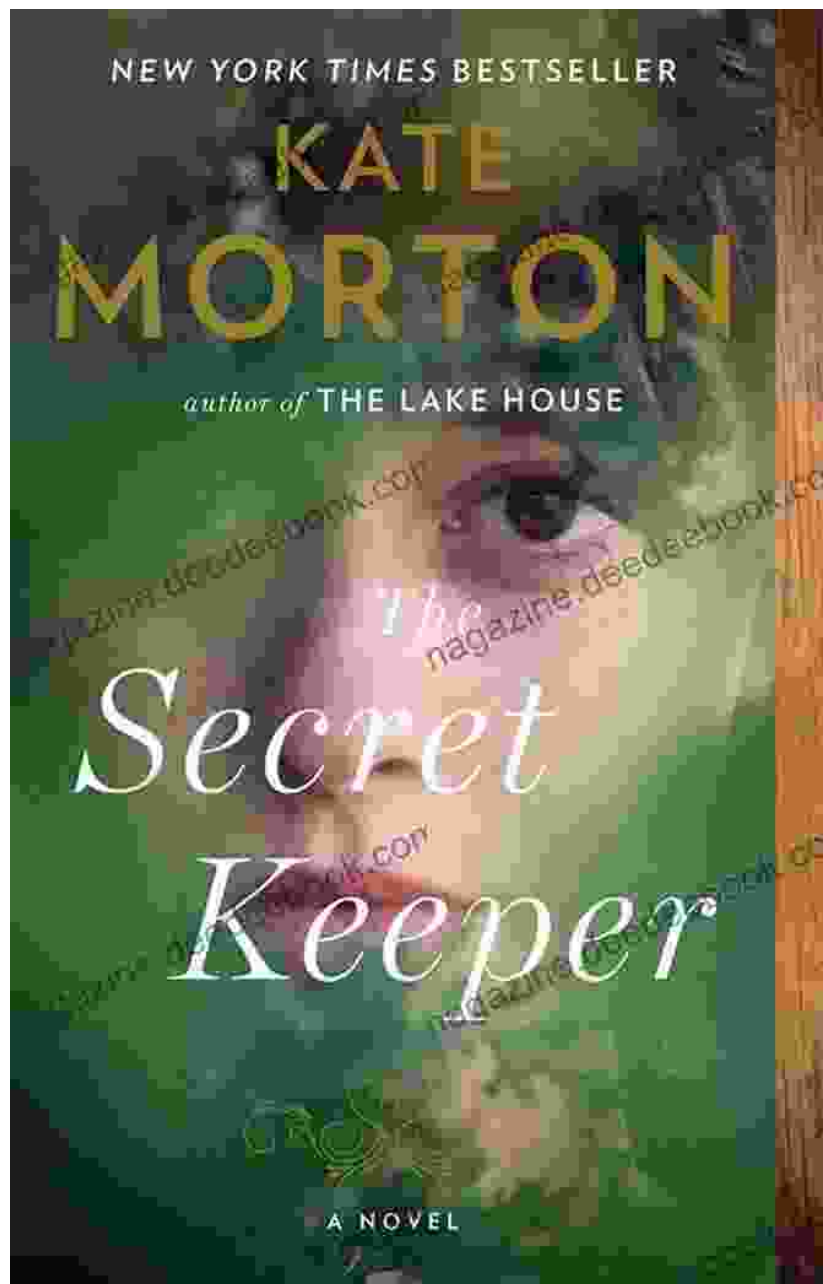

The first installment of the trilogy, "The Distant Hours," introduces us to Edie Burchill, a young woman who inherits a crumbling mansion known as Milderhurst Castle. As she delves into her family's enigmatic past, Edie finds herself entangled in a century-old mystery surrounding the disappearance of a young woman named Eliza Fanning. Piece by piece, Edie unravels the threads of a forgotten tragedy that has haunted the halls of Milderhurst for generations.

Book 2: The Secret Keeper

In "The Secret Keeper," we follow the story of Laurel Nicolson, an aspiring writer grappling with personal turmoil. Drawn to the enigmatic charm of Milderhurst Castle, Laurel becomes entangled in the lives of its current inhabitants, the enigmatic Freddie Winthrop and his enigmatic sister, Dorothy. As she delves deeper into the castle's hidden corners, Laurel unearths a labyrinth of secrets that threaten to consume her.

Book 3: The House at Riverton

The concluding chapter of the trilogy, "The House at Riverton," brings together the threads of the previous installments in a breathtaking crescendo. Set against the backdrop of World War II, we follow the story of Lena Stanbridge, a young woman struggling to navigate the complexities of wartime Britain. As Lena uncovers hidden connections to the enigmatic City of Lies, she finds herself caught in a web of deceit and danger.

Captivating Characters

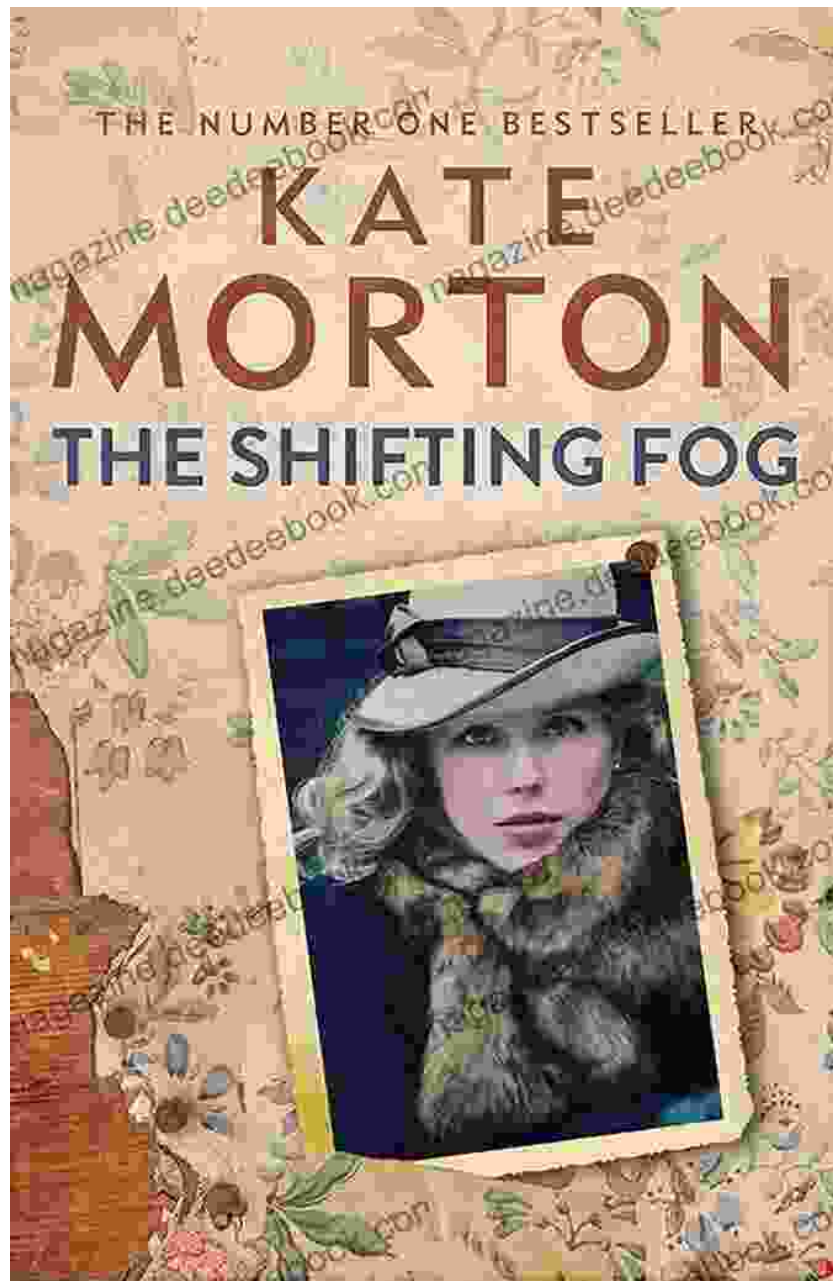

The Keepers Trilogy is renowned for its unforgettable cast of characters. From the enigmatic Edie Burchill to the conflicted Laurel Nicolson and the resilient Lena Stanbridge, each character is meticulously drawn with depth and complexity. Their struggles, triumphs, and flaws resonate deeply with readers, creating an emotional connection that transcends the pages.
