Plot

Noh is a shy and introverted girl who has always been an outsider at school. She is bullied by the other girls and has few friends. However, everything changes when she meets Phun, a popular and charming boy who takes an interest in her. Noh is initially hesitant to get close to Phun, but she eventually falls in love with him. However, their relationship is not without its challenges.

Phun is a popular boy with a lot of friends. He is used to getting what he wants, and he is not used to being rejected. When Noh rejects him, he is determined to win her over. However, Noh is not interested in playing games, and she is not afraid to stand up for herself. This frustrates Phun, and he begins to act out.

Noh and Phun's relationship is also tested by the jealousy of other girls. Phun is a popular boy, and many girls are interested in him. This makes Noh jealous, and she begins to doubt Phun's love for her.

In addition to the jealousy of other girls, Noh and Phun's relationship is also tested by the disapproval of her parents. Noh's parents are traditional and conservative, and they do not approve of her relationship with Phun. This puts a lot of stress on Noh, and she begins to doubt whether she can be with Phun.
