Mr. Putter & Tabby Clear the Decks is a heartwarming children's book about the importance of friendship, helping others, and making a difference in the world. This delightful story is perfect for bedtime or any time you want to share a special moment with your little one.

The Story

Mr. Putter is a kind and gentle old man who lives with his cat, Tabby. One day, Mr. Putter and Tabby are enjoying a peaceful day on their porch when they see a group of children playing in the street. The children are having fun, but they are also making a lot of noise. Mr. Putter is a bit worried about the children, so he decides to go outside and talk to them.

When Mr. Putter reaches the children, he sees that they are playing a game of tag. One of the children, a little girl named Susie, is having trouble keeping up with the others. Mr. Putter offers to help Susie, and she is so grateful for his help that she invites him to play with them.

Mr. Putter and the children have a lot of fun playing tag. But after a while, Mr. Putter starts to get tired. He sits down on the curb to rest, and Tabby jumps up into his lap.

As Mr. Putter and Tabby are resting, they see a group of men working on a nearby house. The men are having trouble clearing the leaves and debris from the roof. Mr. Putter and Tabby decide to help the men, and they soon have the roof cleared.

The men are so grateful for Mr. Putter and Tabby's help that they offer to give them a ride home. Mr. Putter and Tabby accept, and they soon arrive back at their house.

As Mr. Putter and Tabby are getting out of the car, they see a group of people gathered around a tree. The people are trying to rescue a cat that is stuck in the tree. Mr. Putter and Tabby run over to help, and they soon have the cat safely on the ground.

The people are so grateful for Mr. Putter and Tabby's help that they give them a big hug. Mr. Putter and Tabby are so happy to have helped the cat, and they are glad that they could make a difference in the world.
